THE ARTFUL HOME

SARA STORY

Art is an integral part of designer Sara Story's life. Who else would have Otto Zitko live in her home for three months while he painted an installation in the dining room? Her exuberant choices in design display exactly the same kind of fearlessness and dedication.

"One of my favorite rooms to do is a study—a cozy, small-scale atmosphere where you can have a relationship with a piece of art. I can get lost looking at a painting, especially by Neo Rauch. I love the surrealism and the dreamlike quality. Since the painting is so vibrant, I chose more neutral pieces, relying on the textures of vintage and more contemporary items to create a rhythm."
